FOREWORD

THE 1956 senior tribe of Cayuga "Indians" honors the red men of the Lancaster area, early graduates "by the famed Cayuga." Their diploma, a feather for their headpiece, signified that courage against known and unknown dangers, endurance to continue despite physical hardships, self-control, respect for their elders and reverence for their gods had become an integral part of their personalities.

Today Lancaster Central High School has equipped us modern Cayugans with the skills necessary to overcome the challenges of our complex society. Different as these skills may seem from those needed by the Indian inhabitants of Lancaster, the self-same attitudes must be present in us for success. Our edition of the Cayugan proposes to prove that the fine traits of the Cayuga Indians still walk the halls of Lancaster High in the twentieth century.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Winter, President of the Board, reads a report to 1st row: Mr. Anstett, Mr. Smalledge, Mrs. Hummel, Mr. Swanson, and Superintendent of Schools Brown
 2nd row: Mr. Grau, Mr. Sheehan, and School Attorney Davidson

Mr. Roessler, president of the high school P.T.A., addresses their first meeting in September.

Mr. Hoppe, former P.T.A. president, presents a check to Mr. Nitchke, 1955 president of the Lancaster Teachers Association. The fund was to buy professional books for a teachers' library.

Mr. Walter Winter serves as president of the board for Lancaster Central Schools.

Cafeteria staff members served thousands of meals to L.H.S. student body. They include (above) Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Spencer (seated) and Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Hirsch, Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. Troppman, Mrs. Cady, Mrs. Seeger (manager), and Mrs. Ferguson.

Also on the staff are Mrs. Wydysh, Mrs. Trochenski, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Ingalsbe, and Mrs. Dee.

The building stays clean, in spite of the hard wear and tear of overcrowding, through the efforts of Miss Waldmiller, Mr. Seibel, Mr. Klingbiehl, Mrs. Klinkman, Mrs. Baradics, and Mr. Nicholson.

In the Health Department Dr. Addesa gives immunization shots to R. Sandel. School nurses include Mrs. Wolko, Miss Beeman, Miss Weaver, Mrs. Vasbinder, and Miss Baird.

APPRECIATION

TO OUR PARENTS:

Your "papooses" have grown up. But we cannot forget the encouragement and loyal support you gave us during our years at L.H.S.

You foresaw how necessary a high school diploma would be in today's changing world, so you gave us the chance to earn one.

You cheered our athletic and social activities and gave your hard-earned "wampum" to make our life at school more enjoyable.

You had a full schedule of daily work, yet took time to chaperone our dances, attend our games, and serve on the P.T.A.

So our class of '56 says a sincere "Thank You" to our parents.

We hope to be a credit to you when L.H.S. is just a memory.

CLASS ADVISER
MR. BARBARO

CLASS HISTORY

OUR class began its high school trail with a flying start when we nominated Mr. Barbaro as class chief. Our officers for the sophomore year were: John Java, president; Robert Giza, vice president; Diane DeBacy, secretary; Joseph Palermo, treasurer. Our biggest success in obtaining wampum was the annual Sophomore Hop.

We also held class socials to acquaint the class "braves" with their partners.

Another step nearer our goal, our junior year, brought Diane DeBacy as president; Robert Giza, vice president; Lynne Wood, secretary; and Carol Anne Brown, treasurer. We selected black and silver as our class colors and lily of the valley as our class flower. We sponsored Sports Night, sold School Daze and had a successful magazine sale. Our plans for the next year included the combining of the Junior Prom and Senior Ball.

When we reached the final lap of our trail, the senior year, we elected Robert Giza as president; Diane DeBacy, vice president; Carol Anne Brown, secretary; and John Java, treasurer. We sponsored a successful Sadie Hawkins Dance, class social and a splash party. We have now completed our drive for patrons and the final preparation of our yearbook. With our Senior Play and Senior Ball coming soon, we will work hard to make them a grand success.

The time we have all been waiting for is close, graduation. With the years at our favorite tepee, L.H.S., behind us, the Class of 1956 can truthfully boast of its motto when we gather at future pow-wows, "We are young, but the years have no monopoly on courage."

Irene:

I wish you loads of luck at

THE French Club, or "Le Cercle Francais," was formed to acquaint our students with the life and customs of the French people. This is done through colored slides, and lively conversations about French cooking, fashions, and automobiles. Games, charades, and even Bingo help put into practical use the vocabulary learned in class. Here we see the happy merger of fun and learning.

Superior students are able to attain recognition through membership in the French Honor Society and through the National French Contest.

1956 ART COMMITTEE

Kathleen Budzinski, Marie Layer, Miss Bates, Linda Laney, David Wheeler, Miss Fritz, Betty Wojick, JoAnn de Armas, Catherine Werick, Bonnie Ellk, John Hughes

THE Art Committee of Lancaster Central High School is a service organization, working for the promotion of worthwhile art projects within the school. This year the members helped to make many of the arrangements for the Halloween Window Painting Contest sponsored by the Lancaster Downtown Merchants Association. They also sponsored a Christmas gift sale of articles made by art students. Proceeds of this sale went towards the purchase of coloured reproductions of famous paintings for our school.

CAYUGAN STAFF

EARLY in the spring of 1955 an eager group of Juniors began preliminary sketches for layouts in their 1956 Cayugan. By June a well-designed "dummy" had materialized, due to their hard work and persistent efforts.

Under the supervision of Miss Fritz photographic operations began early this September and continued daily as the year's activities progressed.

Divisional page layouts were the work of three most conscientious members of the art staff -- Diane DeBacy, Mona Madge, and Barbara Nelson.

Carol Luke took charge of the all-important patrons' campaign, which netted the class several hundred dollars toward the yearbook expenses.

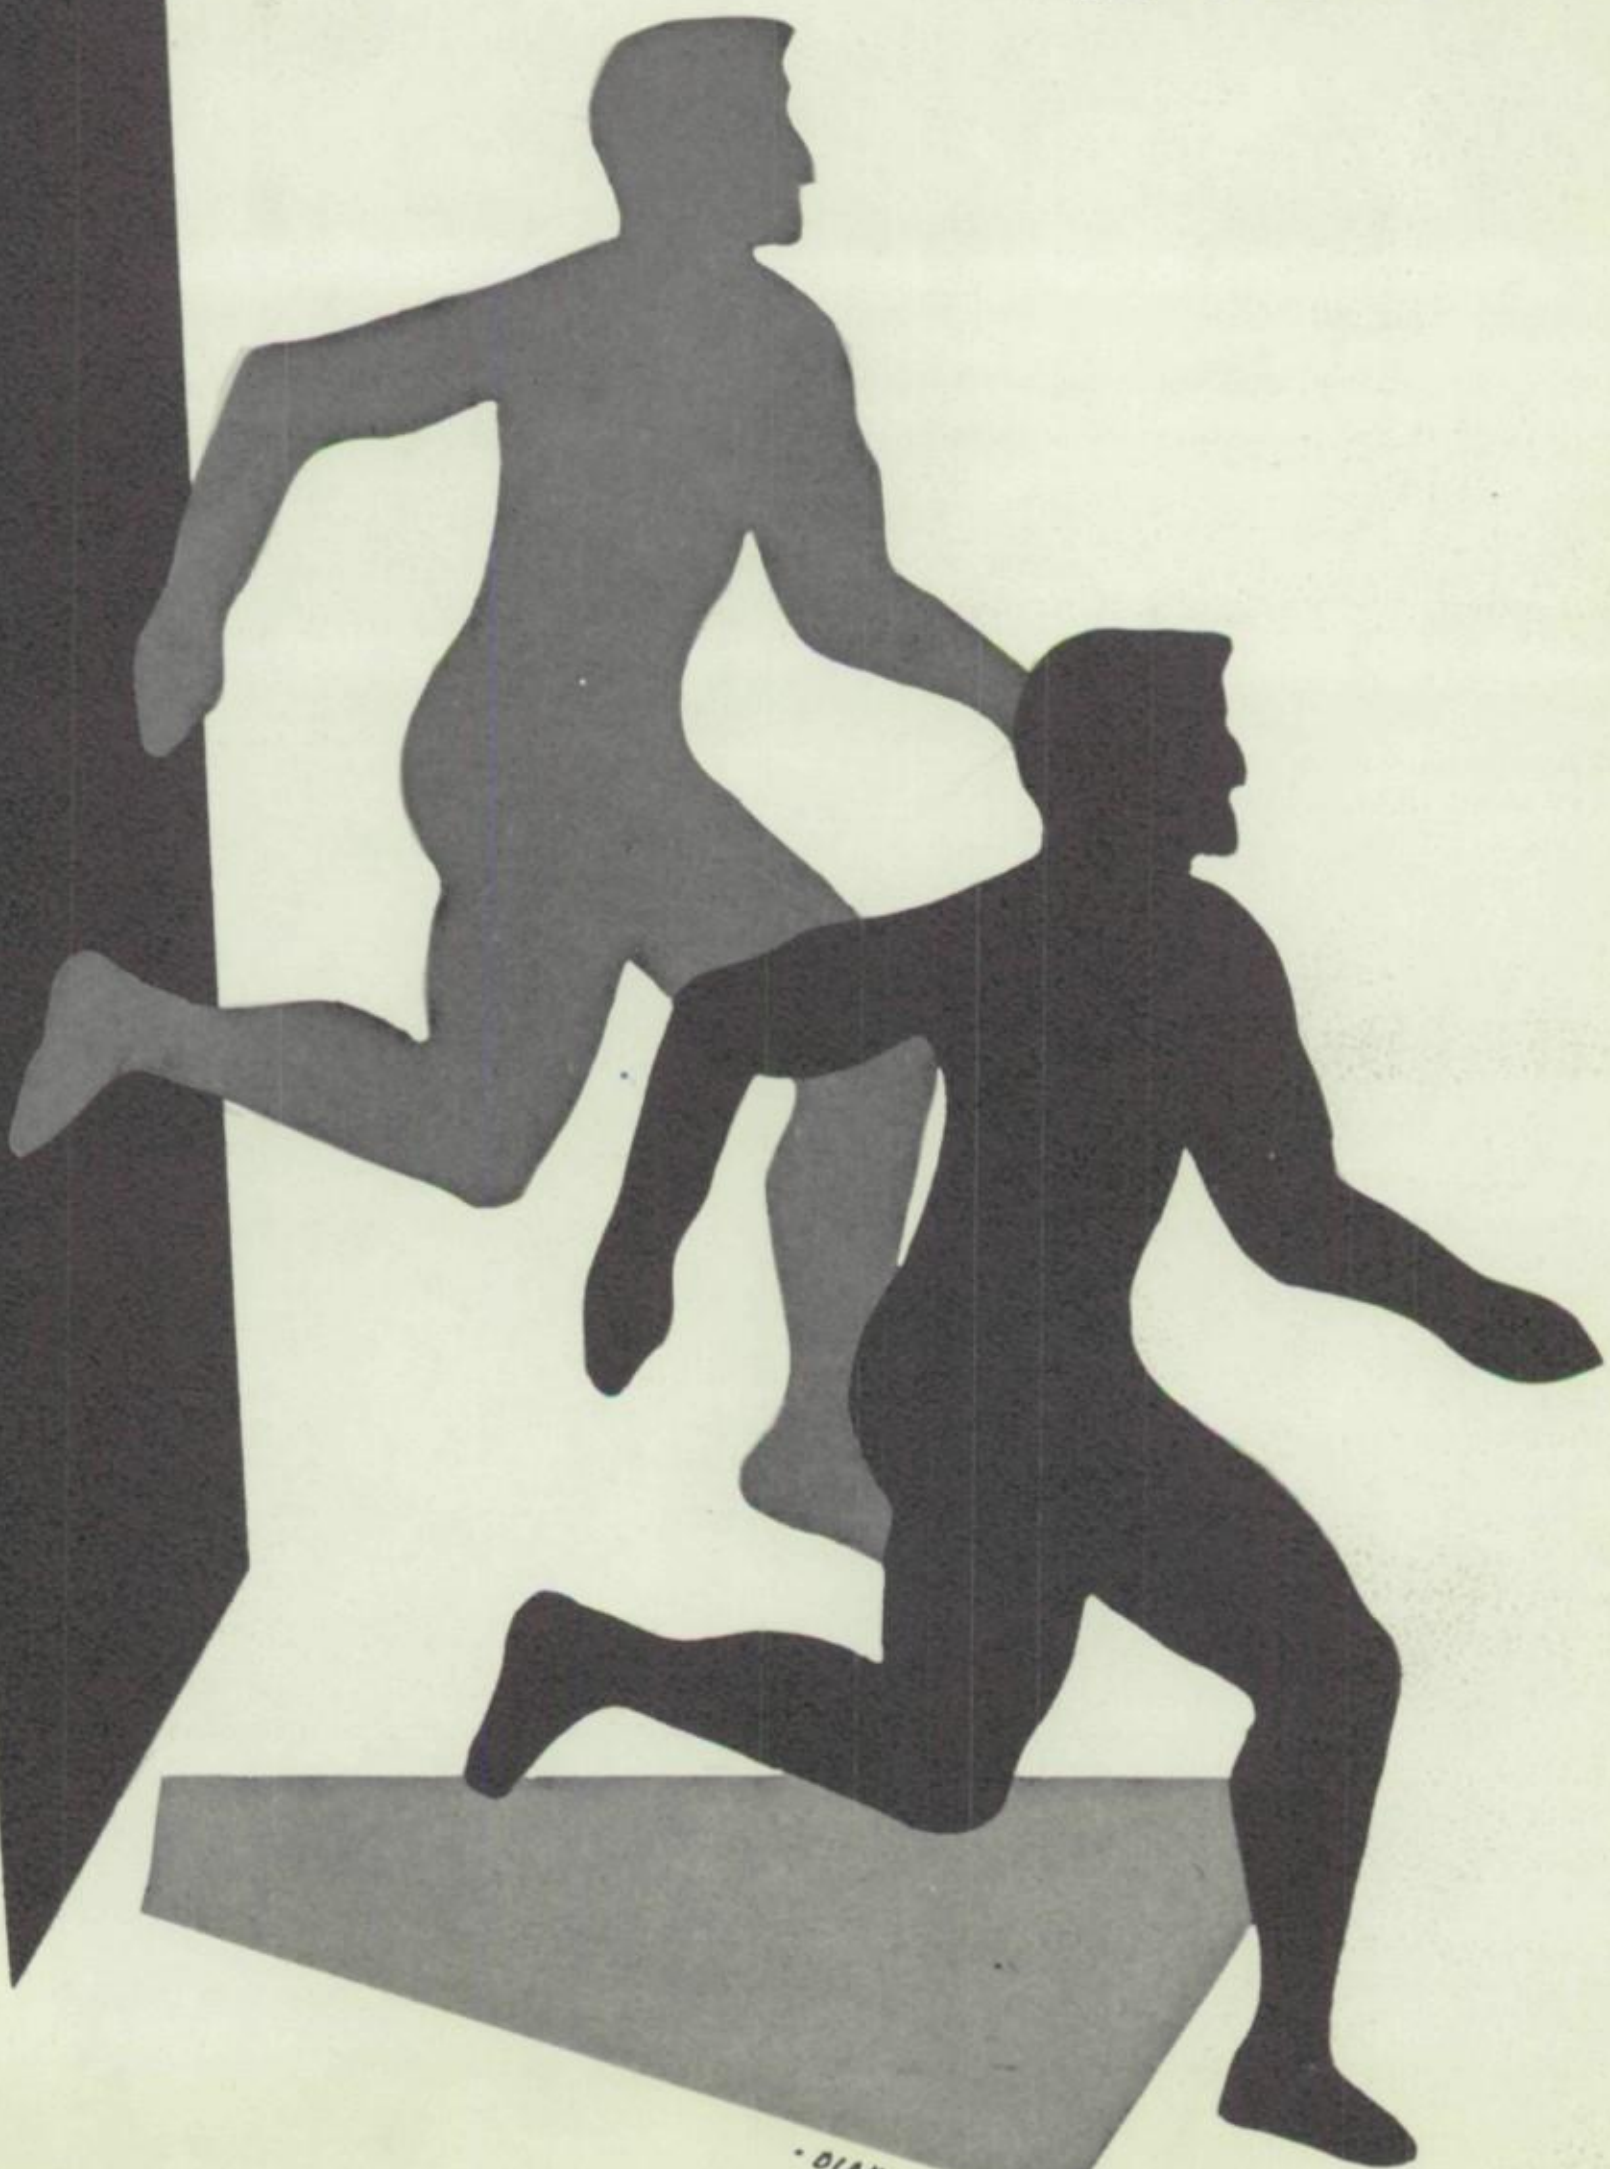

The advisers wish to congratulate this staff on the high standard of their work, their ability to work together, and their ability to meet the varying situations in yearbook designing with patience and flexibility. It is the growth of these qualities in the students who help produce our Cayugan that makes it such a worthwhile school endeavor.

THE cheerleaders were chosen on the basis of personality, cheerleading ability, poise and neatness. Last year ten new cheerleaders were chosen. The four with the highest number of points were put on the Varsity and the remaining six formed the J.V. squad. The three seniors who were on Varsity last year, remained to finish this year. However, next year two complete new cheerleading squads will be chosen.

REDSKINS CAPTURE LEAGUE TITLE

LANCASTER'S hustling basketball team sprinted to four league victories before Christmas, maintained the sizzling pace as they bowled over eight more opponents to go through league play undefeated.

Frank Beyer and Lou Gnagnarelli spearheaded the early season victories, with center Paul Ezzo clearing the boards. During the late season, Carl Broska and John Java dominated play and were both honored on the all-league team. Winner of 16 ball games, the Redskins represented Erie County in sectional play, where they were stopped by Trott in a semi-final game.

Irene,
I'll always remember the good times we had walking home & going out to the show and skating. Oh! and let's not forget the times we went in Robert's and had a ball on the way home from school. I hope you find the man you're looking for you know which one. Have a good life & lots of kids. I hope we have a good time next year & remain friends.
Good Luck now & in the future.
